WEISH BIGGER THAN EVER.

His Victory Over Leonard Paves Way for Another Fortune,

Freddy Welsh did more than whip Benny Leonard in Brooklyn the other night. He paved the way for a brand new ance has made him an attraction all over

Many thought that the little Weishman had come to the end of his rope. Leonged had besten him so easily before that the chances of Weish being in there at the end of ten rounds this time seemed exceedingly slim. Leonard had been groomed to the point of perfection. His friends bet their money that he would flatten the king of the light-weight realm and they didn't ask a million for their one, either. They were dumbfounded when they saw the "old man" thresh the youthful pretender.

When it was over many of Leonard's most ardent admirers said that his chances of ever whiping Weish flitted by.

That may be true, too.

August Belmont's Stromboli Lands Saratoga Handicap

Sarators Springs N. Y., July 31.—The silks of August Belmont flashed in front in the two rich stakes of the opening day at the Saratoga course today—the Saratoga toge Handicap and the United States Hotel Stake. Stromboli, ably ridden by Johnny McTaggart, won the handicap by a length and a half from Ed. Crump. Friar Rock, a stable companion of Stromboli, was third, a head behind Ed. Crump. In this race the great Regret met the first defect of her career, Want of hard work is the answer. She took the running for more than a mile, but then was forced to give up.

A letter from Curley Thomas, head me-chanic for the Smith-Trew Motor Com-pany, now at Brownsville, Tex., with Company C, Second Virginia Infantry,

Having purchased the Cubs' old park in Chicago and the Phillies' grounds in the Quaker City from the Taft interests. Cherles Webb Murphy evidently feels that he has a right to discuss the national game. He is out with a staement that Judge Landis is correct in his assertion that the umpires have too much power and that, as a result, the game lacks excitement. Murphy always found fault with the umpires. His friend, Hordage Fogel, was put out of the National ace Fogel, was put out of the National League for charging the umpires with dishonesty. Presidents Johnson and Tener are handling the purpire problem admirably and there is no reason for a change in methods. If the umpires should be deprived of some of their present authority baseball soon would become a riot. The public is opposed to kicking and rowdylsm.

Ping Bodie and President Lesvitt, of Oakland, were discussing higher finance before the ball game one day in San Prancisco. Leavitt took offense at Bodie's plaint that he wished he had enough mency to retire from work.

"Tou call this work," snorted Leavitt. "Three hours a day, and you're through. If that's work then tell me what is my job?"

"Huh!" retorted Ping with proper emphasis and appropriate adjectives, "you got a pipe. We gotta run around all afternoon an' take a chapee of getting hurt for life. All you gotta do is spend some dough, and then sit around an' watch your athaless run it up into more dough. You gotta lotts nerve ridin' me you have. Soon's I get th' dough I'm goin' to run a ball club. That's my lides of a soft man.
